

Robin Monroe

2235 Turnberry Drive

Oviedo, FL 32765

407.409.0642

Robinmonroe109@gmail.com

Website: <https://celeste109.artstation.com/>

Career Objective: To continue my studies through post-secondary education, obtain an internship in a simulation organization and pursue a career in a STEM-related field.

Education:

Paul J. Hagerty High School, Oviedo, Florida

Attended 2015-present

GPA:

3.4 Weighted

3.3 Unweighted

Clubs:

Modeling and Simulation

Art Honors Society

Certified in Modeling and Simulation

Enrolled in Modeling and Simulation Program

- Participated on a project team to develop a crime scene simulator for forensic science. Maya and Unity used.
- Senior project is designing and modeling a witch's room using Maya with a lot of models formed in a messy fashion
- Modeled the interior of an office using Maya and Photoshop

College Plans:

- Plan to attend Seminole State College in 2019, considering the computer programming program

Work Experience:

Owner and artist for "Unbalanced Arts" online Etsy store.

2016-present

- Responsible for designing products, filling customer orders, and communicating with customers.

Sales person at 4 miniature shows in Florida and Tennessee
2013

- Responsibilities included helping customers, displaying products, packaging merchandise, and handling money at a vendor booth.

Community Volunteering

2017

Responsible for communicating with other volunteers, staff, and students at Paul J. Hagerty High School and helping students understand how Maya works.

Teachers Assistant

2018

Assists the Modeling and Simulation teacher by helping students with Maya, Photoshop, and Unity

Skills:

Maya - Microsoft Word – Excel – PowerPoint – Photoshop – Social Media – Unity – Unreal Engine

Interests/ Activities:

3D Modeling
3D Printing
Concept Art
Digital Illustration
Painting, sketching, animation

References: Available on request