

INNOVATION WORKSHOP

How Your Business Can Leverage the Innovation Economy

A workshop for companies looking to capitalize on the innovation economy, uncover new opportunities, and connect with FREE business assistance throughout Florida.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Any business who wants to discover FREE resources to assist in competing in the innovation economy
- Any business desiring assistance with locating and applying for research grants and funding
- Any business that wants to bring a tech product or service to market
- Any business that could use expert tips and tactics for growing a business in Florida
- Any Disabled, Minority or Women Owned businesses who wish to connect with potential buyers throughout Florida

EXPERT PRESENTERS:

Dr. Tom Oneal
Associate VP for Innovation and Commercialization
University of Central Florida

Beatrice Louissaint
President
Florida State Minority Supplier
Development Council

Jerry Ross
President
National Entrepreneur
Center

TOPICS:

- Discovering and developing the growth aspects of your business
- How to apply for FREE assistance in preparing SBIR/ STTR grants (limited number for qualified attendees) - ($5,000 value)
- How to access and/or license existing University research and patents
- Tapping the benefits of Supplier Diversity Programs

WHERE:

National Entrepreneur Center
3201 E. Colonial Drive, A20
Orlando, Florida 32803

WHEN:

January 16, 2018
9:00am - 11:00am
Doors open at 8:30am

REGISTRATION REQUIRED:

Seating is limited. Register online.
Innovation116.eventbrite.com
CLICK HERE!