

GUIDELINES FOR APPLICANTS

- Applicants must complete the Vince & Beth Amico Scholarship for Modeling and Simulation application.
- Applicants must be first year college freshman with a demonstrated interest in modeling and simulation (preference will be given to students who participated in the Modeling and Simulation program at University High School, Crooms Academy of Information a Technology, or the Institute of Engineering and Technology at Lyman High School), or Applicants may be masters or doctoral students at the University majoring in the Modeling and Simulation program.
- Applicants, either freshman, masters, or doctoral, must be full-time students.
- Applicants must hold a minimum 3.0 grade point average.
- Applicants must agree that if they are awarded to allow NCS the opportunity to have a picture taken with the recipient and allow use of the picture for newsworthy purposes.

Name: Address: Telephone:

Please include in your application the following documents in the order indicated.

1. A cover sheet (this Application Form).
2. A 500-word letter from you that briefly introduces yourself, describes your educational and career aspirations, and justifies why you should be the recipient of this scholarship. Justification can include eligibility as described above, financial need, GPA, community work, or any other relevant purpose.
3. Two letters of recommendation, one of which must be from a previous or current professor and the other from an M&S industry professional.
4. Copies of your current high school or college transcripts.
5. Your current resume.

Send to:

The NCS/ Amico Scholarship Program
Attn: Ms. Melisa Grzanich
University of Central Florida
Institute for Simulation & Training
School of Modeling Simulation & Training
3100 Technology Parkway
Orlando, Florida 32826
mgrzanic@ist.ucf.edu